

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., September 7, 1886.

Sir:

Your recommendation of the 2^d of September meets in general with my approval. I think there is no question but that the work of the Mint can be more efficiently and at the same time, less expensively done by two shifts rather than by over time of a single shift.

You are authorized to take the necessary steps to carry out your own recommendations without further instructions from this Bureau except in the matter of new appointments, which can be acted upon promptly.

I expect to be at your mint some day this week and will confer with you further on this subject.

Very respectfully,

James H. Muldarey
Director.

Hon. Daniel M. Fay,
Supt. U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia.

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
September 7, 1886

Sir:

Your recommendation of the 2d of September meets in general with my approval. I think there is no question but that the work of the Mint can be more efficiently and at the same time, less expensively done viz two shifts rather than by over time of a single shift. You are authorized to take the necessary steps to carry out your own recommendations without further instructions from this Bureau except in the matter of new appointments, which can be acted upon promptly.

I expect to be at your mint some day this week and will confer with you further on this subject.

Very respectfully,
James P. Kimball
Director.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Supt. U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.